

Lyrics

Oh My Lady

©2004 Michael Thiele /
Mark Peltier-Robson

Verse 1

Oh, how can I tell you, what I really want to say?
None of Webster's words, have helped me find the way.
My life's been like a candle, burning from both ends.
Giving me your strength, puts the burning to an end.

CHORUS

I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady
I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady

Verse 2

You taught me to share feelings, and all that they bring.
You taught me when you have a friend, you have everything.
Though I'm not deserving, the truth must be told -
God didn't make My Lady, for any other man to hold.

CHORUS

I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady
I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady

Verse 3

So, I'll come right out and say it, My Lady - you are divine.

I love you more than life, forever you'll be mine.

The union of our spirits, we'll walk hand in hand through time

Our two souls united, forever to be entwined.

CHORUS

I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady

I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady

CHORUS

I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady

I love you, I need you, I want you - Oh, my lady