Pain Of War

Verse 1

He looks around. He can't believe -
Fighting everywhere he can see.
Today's the day to kill or die -
For the hope of humanity.

Verse 2

He moves ahead. He won't retreat -
Through desert sun and the desert heat.
The blinding light will be alright.
Cuz darkness fills his soul tonight.

CHORUS

Just a matter of time. Before he has to cross the line.
Fighting for the red, white, and blue -
Fighting for me and you...
The pain of war.

Verse 3

A shot rings out. A soldier dies -

Death and dying's no surprise.
He takes his aim - now it's his time
Forever he has crossed the line.
The pain of war.

CHORUS

Just a matter of time. Before he has to cross the line.
Fighting for the red, white, and blue -
Fighting for me and you...
The pain of war.

Verse 4

<more to come>

CHORUS

Just a matter of time. Before he has to cross the line.
Fighting for the red, white, and blue -
Fighting for me and you...
The pain of war.

CHORUS

Just a matter of time. Before he has to cross the line.
Fighting for the red, white, and blue -

Fighting for me and you...

The pain of war.
